DENTAL NOTICE!

M. R. RELYEKA TAKES THIS METHOD

to inform the public that he has so far recovered the lameness of his right arm, as to be enabled to resume operations at the Dental Chair, and that he has now the use of the filling teeth, by the use of the steel-lets. The advantages which this manner of operating presents, are so great, that no other dental instruments can never fail or break

(thus preventing accident to the cheeks and gums,) as are now agreed upon, and have in fact, and more power, and durable when compared.

M. R. RELYEKA takes advantage of the high rate of interest when in New York, purchased a very large stock of dental materials for mounting teeth, and is pleased to offer

as any other respectable Dentist in the Province. He is determined not to be surpassed in the execution of his work, nor in the prices of his services. 1-10.

Five Daughters.

A gentleman had five daughters, all of whom he brought up to some responsible calling in life. These daughters married, one after another, with the consent of their Father. The first was given by Mr. Little, the third, a Mr. Short, the fourth, a Mr. Brown, and the fifth a Mr. Hogg. At the wedding of the latter, her sisters with their husbands were present. And the ceremonies of the wedding were over, the old gentleman said to his guests:

"They have taken great pains to educate my daughter, and they might as well have been taught in their home, and from their own accomplishments, I fondly hoped that they would do honor to the family; and now that they are married, their hopes and expectations have turned to nothing but a poor, little, short, brown, hoy!"

PRINCE OF WALES.—The Prince of Wales will now, thanks to the skillful and vigilant management of his father, enter upon a period of comparative quietness, and will not be disturbed by any sudden movements.

He will be in full possession of his health and strength, and will be able to go about as usual. All work WARRANTED

by JOHN W. BROWN,
No. 97 Front St., Belleville.

A LL who enter into a contract with him will be paid.

DENTAL NOTICE.

M. RELYEA TAKES THIS METHOD of informing his relatives that he is far from being satisfied with the results he has been able to obtain from the new method. He is giving back to the public all the instruments he had when this method of operating upon the old was in vogue. The instruments can now be had for a very small sum, and less painful to the patient, and more perfect and durable than ever.

Mr. Relye takes advantage of the high rate of exchange when in New York, purposing to sell his instruments at a low rate for mounting teeth, and is thus enabled to interest such in the rubber base, as to lose a premium. He is determined not to be surpassed in the execution of his work nor for cheapness.

THE subscriber offers for Sale that impending them. The communists demand payment, but it is alleged, partly because there are no moralities among the mutines. The Bomby Gazette is of opinion that the movement was originated by the British, but that it has been suppressed by England. The programme of protest against the British has been fully carried out. As they formed a specific stipulation of the treaty, the British Government has, it maintains, the right to insist upon its execution. If the Youngs do not voluntarily yield their up.

An official telegram has been sent to the Bomby paper stating that the disturbances on the Punjab frontier have been effectively checked. The rebels have been driven back, and three offending villages have been destroyed; their chief men having been made prisoners. Another general amnesty has been granted and promises have been made by several independent chieftains across the border, so that our fears that, that quarters are over, but at least as long as the British hold out.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY APPOINTED FOR THE RISING.

The Dublin correspondent of the London Standard writes:

"In one respect I find a perfect agreement between the opinion of Dublin and that of the principal leaders of the Young Irelanders for the rising.

"I do not venture to say that it would then take place. It is easier to fix a day than a date, and a date is easier to fix than a time.

The Lieutenant down, is under the impression that, had the letter of intended leaders not been received, the rising would have been attempted on that day.

The idea of war is not gone, or even remote. It is possible that, even after so many months of preparation, the rising may still show fight. But it is not very probable, and the prevailing impression is that there will be no attempt at a general rebellion."

English Volunteers to be Called Out.

The soldiers in Dublin were ordered to remain in barracks until ready to respond to their services should a necessity arise.

There was, however, no sign of an outbreak.

The Executive have, however, made no preparations for the calling out of the army in force in Ireland. The First Battalion Coldstream Guards from Chelsea, are to leave immediately for Ireland. The Sixth Dragoon Guards, who are to be the first to leave, will be followed by the First Battalion, the Royal Horse Guards, and the Royal Dragoon Guards, who will be the last to leave.

A detachment of the military train has also gone by the same route, and two detachments of the Royal Horse Artillery are to follow.

The Royal Engineers, the Royal Regiment of foot and the Thirteenth Hussars are also ordered to be in readiness for the same duty.

The train thus created is to be used to call out the volunteers.

Skipping Stones, Feb. 26.

The Fenian fleet will sail from Quebec on the 21st of next December for the Shannon river. The winter solstice has been selected for the time of sailing, because the days are then shortest, and the shortest time to reach Ireland without being discovered by that of England.

The programme of protest against the British has been fully carried out. The Green Plan of Secession, originally proposed by Mr. MacCull, who has reluctantly consented to it, "raked up" for that occasion only, will be crowned on the Hill of Tara. The young Ireland's demand for Stonehenge will be sternly repeated and enforced, with "variations, to meet the age of temperance, and to appose the ghosts of Fether-Matthew."

A new material for action has been made available by the fact that the whole of India rubber is the basis, but it is heavier, and weighs as solid as iron, is flexible and elastic, and can be easily bent.

THE CONTRACT FOR THE IRISH RAILWAY.

The following is the Time Table of the proposed Great Irish Grand Trunk Railway at Belgrave Station:

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1865.

UNITED STATES FRONTIER.—A telegram on Tuesday states that the militia authorities at Washington, D. C., have issued a general order to have their companies filled up, so as to be ready for immediate service on the frontier, should they be required.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday morning, the 10th inst., while Mr. D. F. Fones, millwright, and some other persons were engaged in raising a large stone, a portion of which fell, the stone slipped and a new front door was broken.

A detachment of the military train has also gone by the same route, and two detachments of the Royal Horse Artillery are to follow.

The soldiers in Dublin were ordered to remain in barracks until ready to respond to their services should a necessity arise.

RHYTHM.—The Reciprocity Treaty expires Saturday the 17th inst. A circular has been issued from the Government stating that the time of its expiry gives full scope to the United States to impose such measures as it deems necessary, and that the Legislature may choose to impose duties.

Dried fruit, fur, skins, pelt, and tallow, are expected and will be subject to duty of twenty per cent.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE VOLUNTEERS.—A considerable portion of the Volunteer Force under arms have been sent to the frontier. The First, Second, and Third Regiments of the New York Militia, and points in the Eastern Territories, are strongly garrisoned, and Winsted, Savin, and other points west, those Companies which have not been sent to the front are doing duty at their respective Posts and Cities.

RHYTHM.—The Washington correspondent of the Standard says that the following is the latest news received from the French Minister of War:

"Resolved.—That the Report of the Queen's Own Rifles, and the other regiments of its principles to the said, and circumstances of the Continental Provinces, is in no respect suitable to Newfoundland, and where, if accepted, prove injurious to the prosperity, happiness, and welfare of its inhabitants."

This was rejected by a vote of 18 against 4.

The resolution in favor of Union, referred to before was then proposed and carried.

On the Report of the Committee being issued by Mr. T. F. Galt, the whole of the Assembly, excepting a few voices, voted in favor of the Queen's Own Rifles.

On the important question of Confession in recognizing the neutrality of Her Britannic Majesty's dominions, the whole of the Assembly, excepting a few voices, voted in favor of the Queen's Own Rifles.

THEY are probably the only basis upon which to found a national army, as to almost all the other colonies, while the predominance of opinion is decidedly adverse to our entering into the proposed Confederation of the Provinces on the terms of the Queen's Own Rifles.

This resolution, agreeing to the principle of Union and opposing the Queen's Own Rifles, was carried by a vote of 18 to 4.

tools to excite a popular feeling in favor of the organization in America, persuading the mass population that great events, wonderful revolutionary movements, were impending in Ireland, and that they must be prepared for them with their money. While the Head Centres were thus enriched in America, their shapery, the victims of spine and infirmities, were brought before the public tribunals, and condemned to death, as traitors and rebels, snatched from the bosom of their families, and the scenes which were enacted in France in the last century.

Militia Orders and Promotions.

The following is part of Order No. 1, Major James Crawford, commanding the Brockville Company, to have the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, in the Royal Canadian Militia, as follows:

No. 5.—The following order will be submitted for the last day of the General Order No. 1, in the Royal Canadian Militia:

No. 6.—The following order will be submitted for the last day of the General Order No. 1, in the Royal Canadian Militia:

No. 7.—The following order will be submitted for the examination of Voluntee ers—by a body of men whose acts will pierce them beyond the pale and protection of all national law, and who cannot be induced to acknowledge any of its obligations. Their avowed motives include that of revenge upon Ireland, and they do not hope at this moment to rouse an insurrection and strike at the Queen's Government, but to effect their purpose in this Province as a means of insult and annoyance, which is more within their reach, and in which they can secure a greater temporary success.

Such an attack, conceived and executed in such a spirit, would be a most impudent and flagitious act for the most flagitious of the most abandoned of those associated in it, where success would be accompanied by the most unfeeling and unmerciful contempt and unfeeling of the minds of the people for the barbarous scenes which were enacted in France in the last century.
